CONFIDENCE DELIVERED.®

Tri-City Electric Co.
Since 1895

Experienced in telecommunications.

Communications directors and information systems specialists who need integrated telecommunications count on the experience of Tri-City Electric Co. You can too. Our Telecommunications division offers a range of products and services to help your organization stay in touch across town and across the world.

"Tri-City Communications designed and installed a voicemail/phone system in our Moline and Davenport offices. Throughout this project their staff provided custom-fit solutions, helped manage our internet/telecommunications vendors, and kept our internal team well-informed. Their solution consultants, technicians and trainers went out of their way to make sure we were completely satisfied at all critical stages. I strongly recommend Tri-City Communications as a supplier and business partner." — Mary Ellen Johnson, Vice President, Education & Operations, Junior Achievement of the Heartland, Moline, IL
