

Residential Services

Bring the power of quality, experience and value home with
Tri-City Electric Co.

You can look at Web pages, ads and bids from hundreds of electricians. But the most important thing you want when you bring an electrical contractor into the privacy of your home is the confidence they will get the job done right and with integrity. That is the way Tri-City Electric has been doing business since 1895. And it's what we promise we'll do for you, too.

CONFIDENCE DELIVERED.®

Tri-City Electric Co.
Since 1895

Experienced in Residential Services

Tri-City Electric Company's Residential Services division has the experience, knowledge and expertise to handle any electrical job you need done for your home – from wiring to security to back-up generators. For safe and convenient service, you can be confident Tri-City Electric Co. will get the job done exactly the way you want it.

Our service technicians

When you bring an electrical contractor into the privacy of your home, you want to have confidence they will get the job done right and with integrity.

All of our technicians are highly qualified, with many years of experience in the electrical industry. They have undergone extensive criminal background checks and drug screens. When they knock on your door, you will also notice their clean Tri-City Electric Co. uniform and ID badge, so they are easily identifiable to you.

"We treat your home like it's our own. You can count on us to get the job done cleanly, safely and efficiently." — Doug Palmer, President/CEO
